

The Canyon

An immersive and realistic team adventure that takes participants on an unforgettable learning adventure using America's most popular scenic wonder as the theme

“ 86% of professionals believe that lack of collaboration and team work is the main reason for workplace failures

OVERVIEW

”

When looking at teams, it often becomes evident that not all team members participate evenly. Some are quick to share, some prefer to be silent and some are disengaged. Whatever the challenge, the input or lack of input determines the team's success.

The Canyon is a team experience that works to ensure that all team members share evenly – or at least are given the space to share.

Everything we do directly impacts the people around us in a very real way. This experience opens your eyes to the downstream impact of your decisions and the way those decisions get amplified by the structure of the organization. Get ready to test the strength of your lines of consensus and decision making during this team building activity.

OUTLINE

More than the usual consensus-building activities, the creative design of this participant scenario gives this team experience a distinct advantage over other simulations by supporting participants throughout the activity with helpful techniques and key learning points.

- Creativity and Problem Solving
- Collaboration
- Teamwork
- Leadership
- Conflict Resolution
- Consultation

The Canyon was researched and written on location and by seasoned Grand Canyon guides and experiential learning specialists. Additionally, The Canyon learning experience includes interrelated activities on problem solving, collaboration, and consensus decision making, which makes the program extremely flexible.

OUTCOMES

- Adapt leadership and team approach to suit the activity
- Take responsibility and then engage in generating solutions and ideas
- Avoid disaster through effective communicating and planning
- Spark creativity when generating ideas and actions
- Practice and use various strategies to communicate effectively

PARTICIPANT FEEDBACK

"This experience offers incredible insight into how we really communicate at work. It's great stuff we can put into action immediately."

Let's build your team for - fast-tracking, fundamentals or fun - today!

Have some questions, special requests or need a quote?

Call our Team Specialists to get started.

(905) 477-5544